Re: United States v. Trevor Gordon, 23 Cr. 326 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

A status conference in this case is currently scheduled for January 16, 2023. The Government has previously advised the Court that the Government anticipates that the defendant will enter a change of plea at the next conference. (Dkt. 33). The Court directed the parties to schedule a change of plea hearing before the next conference and referred any such change of plea to the magistrate judge on duty. (Dkt. 34).

On behalf of the parties, the Government writes to respectfully request that the Court adjourn the upcoming conference for approximately two weeks. The parties are continuing to discuss a pretrial resolution of the case and anticipate that the defendant will enter a change of plea before the next conference date.

The Government respectfully requests that time be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act between January 16, 2024, through the next conference so that the parties can continue to discuss a pretrial resolution. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7). The Government has consulted with defense counsel, who does not object to the exclusion of time.

Application GRANTED. The status conference scheduled for January 16, 2024, is ADJOURNED to February 6, 2024, at 10:30 A.M. The Court finds that the ends of justice served by excluding the time between today and February 6, 2024, outweigh the best interests of the public and the Defendant in a speedy trial as provided in 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) (A) because it will allow additional time for the Defendant to engage in discussions of potential resolution of this case. It is hereby ORDERED that the time between today and February 6, 2024, is excluded.

Dated:January 12, 2024 New York, New York Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS United States Attorney
